

Nicholas Truglia

New York, New York

email: nick@truglia.us

url: nicholastruglia.com

born: September 25, 1997, San Antonio, Texas

Work

- 2026– Cyber Justice Institute — founder Independent nonprofit for cryptocurrency crime prevention and victim support.
cyberjusticeinstitute.org
- 2020– Independent security research — authorized Practice: social engineering, account takeover including SIM-swap, exchange-side control failure, over-the-counter counterparty risk, and on-chain asset tracing.
- 2013–2019 Offensive security research — unauthorized
Social engineering and technical exploitation at two layers. Carrier: internal administrative systems at major U.S. mobile network operators. Exchange: individual and corporate accounts. Digital assets and high-value account handles.

Writing

- 2026– Essays — nicholastruglia.com/essays
Self-hosted, long-form.
Subjects: capital, politics, technology, science, philosophy, and justice
- 2026– Substack — nicholastruglia.substack.com

Education

- 2016–2018 Baruch College — finance
Degree: not conferred

Public service

- 2013–2014 U.S. House of Representatives — campaign intern
Congressman Frank Pallone, 2014 reelection cycle. Monmouth County, New Jersey.
Voter outreach by canvass, phone, and community events.
- 2013–2015 Google — CS First advocate
Promoted Google's CS First curriculum in underserved New Jersey school districts.
- 2005–2015 St. Brigid's Pantry — volunteer
Packaged and distributed food to families in need. Long Branch, New Jersey.

Reading

- Worldly Wisdom* — an annotated bibliography of the books that shaped how I think nicholastruglia.com/worldly-wisdom